We are seeking to employ an enthusiastic and experienced Early Years Practitioner to join our professional team within EYFS in providing high quality care. We are looking for an EYP who has had experience of and understands the ethos of working in an educational school setting.

You will be welcomed into a friendly, supportive team who work closely together, and you will be involved in providing inspiration to EYFS pupils through the development of exciting and engaging activities in all areas of learning.

We benefit with a large outdoor area and would therefore be looking for candidates who have an interest in outdoor play, gardening and the creative curriculum. The school is working towards EYFS becoming an outstanding setting.

Applicants should hold an NNEB Certificate or NVQ Level 3 in Childcare or equivalent and have experience of working with children from 3-5 years.

South Grove Primary School is a multicultural, two form entry primary school situated in Walthamstow which is well served by road and transport links close to the school.
